

DEER VALLEY ROCK ART CENTER Press Release

November 22, 2011

Guided Petroglyph Tours

PHOENIX – The Deer Valley Rock Art Center celebrates the New Year with specially scheduled guided tours for the public on Saturdays in January 2012 from 10 a.m. - 11a.m.

Join our educators for a guided tour of the petroglyph trail, nature preserve and museum. Tour is included with regular admission: $7 adults, $4 seniors and $3 children. Children 5 and younger are free. Ask for an additional 10% off for AAA members.

The Deer Valley Rock Art Center has the largest concentration of Native American petroglyphs in the Phoenix Valley. Visitors hike a quarter-mile trail to view over 1,500 petroglyphs made between 500 and 7,000 years ago. The museum aims to promote preservation, connection and respect for the site and we are a destination for families to learn about archaeology in their own backyard. The Center is managed by one of the top archaeology programs in the country – the School of Human Evolution and Social Change, in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at Arizona State University.

Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday; 12 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Sunday. More information is available at <http://dvrac.asu.edu> or call (623) 582-8007
